Tribal Council Regarding
Osage Control Question.

One day in Oklahoma had given the sub-committee of the Indian affairs committee a tremendous insight into Indian affairs as they concern both the Indian and business conditions in general. Members of the committee made this fact known last night at a banquet given in their honor by the Western Refiners association at Hotel Tulsa. Nearly one hundred men, members of the Refiners association, members of the chamber of commerce, and others, attended.

The party of nine congressmen, accompanied by two official stenographers, arrived about 7:30 last night from Muskogee over the Midland Valley. They had spent all day yesterday in Muskogee, investigating affairs at the Indian office there and gathering information relative to Indian affairs. Among other things, they found the Muskogee office is sufficiently large and well organized to handle all Indian affairs in the state of Oklahoma, where approximately 100,000 of the 300,000 members of the five civilized tribes live.

Composing the sub-committee are Congressmen Homer P. Snyder, chairman, New York; John N. Tillman of Arkansas; M. E. Rhodes, Missouri; Charles Carter, Oklahoma; W. W. Hastings, Oklahoma; and Hernandez of New Mexico; Carl Hayden of Arizona; J. A. Eleton of California; and R. C. Cole of Ohio.

This sub-committee is touring practically all states where there are Indians, or where important Indian business is transacted, in an effort to gather information that will facilitate the handling of pending or future legislation. The committee first hand and reliable knowledge of the actual situation existing between members of the five civilized tribes and the industrial work, with special reference to the oil industry.

In Oklahoma the itinerary includes Muskogee, Tulsa, Pawhuska, Chickasaw, Oklahoma City and Clinton. From Oklahoma the party will go to New Mexico and Arizona.

Pat Malloy acted as toastmaster of last night's banquet. After welcoming the distinguished guests, on the part of the Western Refiners association, he called upon Mayor T. D. Evans to welcome the congressmen to the city.

"Restrictions now on the oil industry are intolerable, and need correction; there is not a producing well, no matter how small, but which should be pumped," declared Congressman Snyder, said frankly that his trip to this state had all

Session Again Refused

HARTFORD, Conn., May 10.—Gov. Marcus Holcomb, replying to the request made by the "Flying Squadron" of suffragists representing the 48 states, again has declined to call a special session of the Connecticut legislature to act on the woman suffrage amendment. His decision was given in a letter to Miss Katherine Ludington, president of the Connecticut woman's suffrage association made public tonight.

Hays Ordained Elder

SULLIVAN, Ind., May 10.—W. H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, was ordained an elder in the Presbyterian church of this city yesterday. Hays has been an active member of the local church for a number of years, having taught a class of boys in the Sunday school for more than 15 years.

CONTESTS ARE POSTPONED

Hearing on All Protested Delegations Is Deferred
Until May 31.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, republican senate leader and author of the Lodge reservation to the league of nations covenant, will sound the keynote of the coming presidential campaign at the republican national convention in Chicago June 8. The committee on arrangements today selected Senator Lodge for temporary chairman and voted to recommend to the convention that someone else be chosen permanent chairman to relieve Mr. Lodge of the strain of directing the entire convention. Four years ago Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio filled both positions.

The committee's recommendation, according to several committeemen, probably will pave the way for the selection of former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana as permanent chairman.

The name of Senator Borah, candidate of the supporters of Senator Hiram Johnson for permanent chairman, was not mentioned during the discussion, according to Fred Upham, national treasurer. Chairman Will H. Hays of the national committee, reported on conference held last week with senate leaders at the White House. Senator Lodge's selection was urged by Senator Knox, Brandegee and others. Party leaders said the league of nations fight undoubtedly would be touched on by Senator Lodge and that plan indicating the peace treaty and the league covenant with the reservations voted by the republican majority in congress would be inserted in the platform.

Lafayette B. Gleason, secretary of the last two republican conventions, was again chosen temporary secretary. Six assistants, three men and three women, also were named. They are Mrs. Gay Garnett of Maine; Miss Jeanette A. Hyde of Utah; Mrs. Chloe Adair Morgan of Kansas; Edward J. Beaman of Pennsylvania; Harry Giovannioli of Kentucky; and Fred Wilson of Missouri.

Edward P. Thayer of Indiana, sergeant at arms of the national committee, was appointed temporary sergeant at arms of the convention. Maj. Gen. James A. Ryan of Chicago was named chief doorkeeper. His assistants will all be former servants of General Pershing. The chief of staff of the Mexican expedition and later commanded two officers' training camps at Port San Juan. The department also will have a number of other officers. The chief of staff of the Mexican expedition and later commanded two officers' training camps at Port San Juan. The department also will have a number of other officers.

The national executive committee also met here today. It was decided to postpone hearing of contests for convention seats to May 31 at 9 a. m. Chairman Hays reported that the "situation showed much improvement," that the original plan to open the hearing on May 25 was no longer necessary.

NAVY'S RECORD CLEAN

Stands Untouched Says Secretary—Hits Sims for Being "Pro-British."

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary Daniels launched a vigorous counter-offensive against Rear Admiral Sims today when he appeared before the senate investigating committee to answer charges made by the officer against the navy department's conduct of the war.

Sweeping criticism of Admiral Sims occupied Mr. Daniels most of the day, devoted to reading a carefully prepared statement. His attack came as a preface to the Sims charges of failure and lack of cooperation and he unsparingly arraigned the admiral for "pro-British idiosyncrasies," violation of naval regulations and criticism of the "self-sacrificing and successful efforts" of his fellow workers.

So far as he dealt today with Admiral Sims' charges that delay by the department had prolonged the war unnecessarily, Secretary Daniels declared the navy's war record "stood untouched today and for all time, regardless of criticisms from within or without."

"As to the American navy's part in the great war," he said, "there are no two opinions at home or abroad. The most serious charges made by Admiral Sims are without foundation and the others are unjustified. Upon his assumption of what he calls errors and a small foundation of facts, Admiral Sims has erected a towering structure of exaggeration and misrepresentation."

The admiral, Mr. Daniels said, desired to accept the offer of the king of England that he become an honorary member of the British admiralty and "wrote complainingly" when the department declined to allow him to accept the appointment. Sims apparently placed more value on them than on honors his own government could bestow, Mr. Daniels declared.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Shouting for the radicalism of German, French, Italian and Russian socialism, the Illinois delegation to the convention of the socialist party of America today launched a concerted attack on "conservative" leaders and their platform demands for popular administration of private property "for the benefit of all."

Following introduction of "a declaration of principles" and party platform drafted under the leadership of Morris Hillquit, the "fighting minority" from Chicago led their state's representatives into what was developed into a party warfare of threatening aspect. It was stated tonight.

Oppose Hillquit.

J. Louis Engdahl, Samuel H. Holland and William F. Kruse, all of Chicago, and the last two were in attendance for the adoption of the "Hillquit platform" was submitted with the motion that it be adopted. Holland gained the floor amid a tumult of waving hands and shouts.

"I don't like this platform at all," he cried. "It contains nothing but nice phrases. We have had no opportunity to consider it. Yet Hillquit has the audacity to move its adoption. What are they trying to do? Throw it down our throats?"

Hillquit stated he was following ordinary parliamentary procedure in moving the adoption of his committee's program, thus opening the way for debate on it. He said the program of the independent socialist parties of Germany, France, Italy and Russia had been studied with resultant eliminations until the present platform submitted had been brought down to its present size and shape. "To meet the needs of America in 1920."

The convention finally voted to nominate itself a committee of the whole to consider the platform tomorrow.

The convention met next Thursday afternoon for the nomination of candidates for president and vice president. Eugene V. Debs, now serving a year for violation of the espionage laws, already has been proclaimed as the party's probable candidate for president.

The socialist party of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor and twice Pennsylvania assemblyman from Reading, to accept the nomination of vice president, was elected today. Prior to the convention he was quoted as saying he would decline it because he wanted to run for congress.

Sec. Nearing, formerly professor of economics at the University of Pennsylvania and University of Toledo, and Seymour Steadman of Chicago, general counselman of the party, are leading candidates for the vice presidential nomination. Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare of Kansas City, now serving two years in the Jefferson City, Mo., prison, also is mentioned for second place.

ADOPT PRIVATE SHIP PLAN

Senate Tentatively Approves Committee Amendments to Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Without a record vote and virtually without debate, the senate tentatively adopted today committee amendments to the house bill providing for a permanent merchant marine policy. Senator Jones, republican, Washington, in charge of the measure, hoping for its passage before the end of the week.

Among amendments adopted were those providing for a private ownership shipping board, which the bill created, to sell the merchant fleet built by the government during the war "as soon as practicable, consistent with good business methods and the objects and purposes to be attained by this act."

Another would authorize the board to set aside annually during the next five years $5,000,000, derived from the sale or operation of vessels, to be used in the construction of new vessels.

MEXICO CITY, 10.—(Via El Paso Junction and Dallas, Tex.)—Mexico City today was quiet, with water, light and power services in full operation. General Jacinto Trevino, to whom General Fortunato Zuazua surrendered the national capital, has been named military commander of the city.

General Obregon told American guests today that he could have taken Mexico City a week earlier, but preferred to wait and give President Carranza a chance to resign and avoid all disorder and bloodshed. Throughout the entire rebel movement, he said, there had been virtually no bloodshed or any disorder in any part of the country.

All reports received here bear out General Obregon's contention that the idea of the liberal revolution has been to avoid fighting and bring about a peaceful change in government and later hold free elections. The most-stressed point of the revolutionary leaders was that the revolution was a moral one, against imposition by Carranza of a regime under his own presidential candidate.

The revolutionists desired the resignation and not the death of Carranza, leaders declared, in order that free elections might be held and that Mexico might change its foreign policy to one of fostering friendly relations with other powers.

The capture of a Carranza military train, carrying many millions of pesos, is expected to relieve the threatened money shortage in Mexico City. The sudden advance in the price of foodstuffs is the only alarming feature in the situation here.

It is confirmed, too, the bulletin said, that General Murguia, Urquiza and Barragan, the latter the famous chief of staff of Carranza, were executed. General Alberto Salinas, nephew of Carranza, commander of the aviation school, was wounded and captured.

General Alvaro Obregon has ordered Carranza returned to the city of Mexico with all consideration, ordering all commanders not to kill or mistreat anyone of his company.

"The city of Mexico is quiet," the bulletin said, "he was accompanied, besides the generals reported killed, by his official family, including Luis Cabrera, Manuel Maguila, Manuel Lucio Blanco, and others. To complete the catastrophe of the Carranza regime, he was captured with all his remaining elements at Apizaco."
